

The National do not call list should be upgraded to match Wisconsin's list. I do not enjoy getting call at all times of the day. People working second and third shifts are being awoken to advertising ploys. I will contact a bank etc. if want to do business with them.